LAB 03

The building, in one long image

TRIES To tell the talk's animation M01 as one image the eye travels down: every walk in it drawn as a line, the people's above and the agents' below, with the time and the words that were on screen down the left.

MADE FROM

- `src/static/motion/lab/the-building/v1/index.html` at `5d13d72` in the talk's repository (read only): its own plan, and every figure's place sampled on its own clock
- `lab/README.md` and `lab/tools/lab.css` (the lab's format, the designer's)

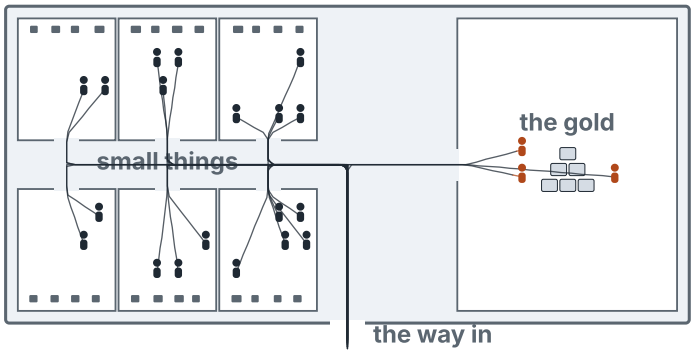

THE QUESTION Does one image carry the story that took 43 seconds? Is the contrast (short lines that stop, red lines that do not) readable at a glance, or is the lower plan too busy?

☐ keep ☐ change ☐ drop note

0:00
A building. One way in. A corridor that splits.

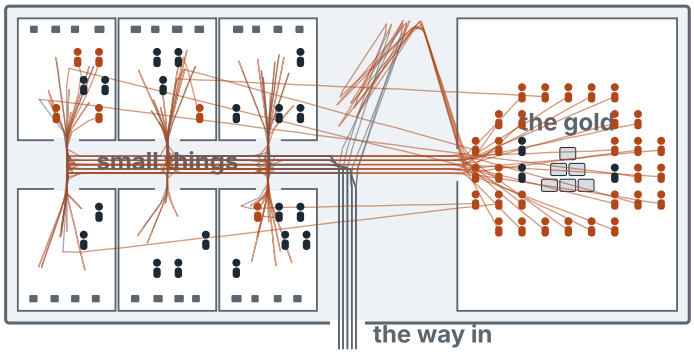

0:05
Most turned left.
Now and then, one found the gold.

Each line: one person, from the way in to where they stopped.

0:23
Agents: more of them,
and they keep going.

Each line: one agent. It turns red where it starts doing damage.

0:37 to 0:43
People stop at a room. Agents don't stop.
Red: doing damage. A pattern, not a count.
Red shows capability, not intent: the talk's agents were a benign team.

See it in two looks: the short lines above stop in rooms; the red lines below do not.
